Partnership

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated is excited to announce its partnership with Micah’s Voice. Micah’s Voice is a 501(c)3 organization which provides community, hope and financial resources to families affected by autism. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated and Micah’s Voice have come together to build awareness, strengthen advocacy and execute fundraising to support families of children with autism.

Micah’s Voice was founded by Shawn and Sharhonda Stockman. Shawn Stockman is one of the lead singers and founders of Boys II Men. The Stockmans’ Foundation was inspired by one of their twin sons, Micah, who is autistic.
